FACTS

6. The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) conducted an investigation of the Christopher Roybal Drug Trafficking Organization (DTO). The FBI received information that Roybal was selling large quantities of cocaine in the Albuquerque area. The FBI successfully conducted three separate controlled purchases of one kilogram of cocaine, one controlled purchase of eight ounces of cocaine and multi-pound purchases of high-grade marijuana. A Confidential Sources (CS) advised that Roybal was one of the most substantial cocaine dealers in the Northern and Central New Mexico. Roybal had stated that the Roybal DTO was distributing approximately 15 kilograms of cocaine each week together with distributing high-grade marijuana. Roybal also stated that the DTO generated $60,000 in profits monthly.

7. The following members of the Christopher Roybal DTO distributed controlled substances and collect drug proceeds in and around the North New Mexico: George Roybal, Jonathan Ulibarri, Jairus Granado, Kristen Lucero, Brandy Lucero, Tiana Candelaria, Troy Crawford, Anthony Padilla, Paul Ulibarri, Manuel Valencia and Erick Vigil.

8. On March 5, 2012, an outgoing call was intercepted between Roybal and Manuel Valencia.

Valencia: Hey uh, I uh, I talked to that guy. He said that hopefully on Wednesday he'll be ready to close up there no.

Roybal: Oh, Okay.

Valencia: So he'll have the paperwork ready and uh and hopefully Wednesday they'll have (UI) ready to close up the deal.

Roybal: Nice. What are you up to dude?

Valencia: Nada, I'm getting into town now and picking up a load of hay or for two loads of hay on one truck and then load up the other truck. But I'll stock up right away (UI).

Roybal: Holale.

Valencia: Yeah, so I came an got some loads of hay (UI). I'm probably about an hour away from the, from the weigh station.

Roybal: Oh, okay.

Valencia: (UI) But, uh.

Roybal: I'm gonna go visit my mom and I was gonna, are you, are you gonna be home?

Valencia: Yeah, I'm gonna be home this afternoon (UI). I might (UI) later today but uh call me.

Roybal: Yeah, I'll stop by and say hi dude. See what you're up to.

Valencia: Okay.

Roybal: Alright, bueno.

Valencia: Later.

9. Agents believe that Valencia and Royal were talking about setting up a drug transaction and that the “paperwork” was referring to the money to pay for the load of drugs. Agents also believe that “loads of hay” referred to was marijuana that Valencia had access to and was in the process of distributing.

10. On December 12, 2012, a federal grand jury indicted Christopher Roybal and others for distribution of marijuana and cocaine, money laundering and conspiracy. See United States v. Christopher Roybal, et.al., 12cr3182 JB.

11. On December 14, 2012, at approximately 0630, FBI Agents together with agents of the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) executed a Federal arrest warrant for Manuel Valencia at 515 A Old National Road, Las Vegas, NM 87701. Valencia’s girlfriend, Lydia Ulibarri, was also present. Valencia advised agents there were no other persons at his residence, although there were two firearms, which were seized by the DEA. The FBI seized the defendant conveyance. Valencia claimed that he earned his income through the sale of the horses and the sport of horse roping, and that he and Ulibarri purchased the motorcycle from a seller on “Craigslislist” for $8,000 in cash.

12. Investigation into Valencia’s earnings reveal that he has not earned legitimate income since 2007.

13. Investigation into Ulibarri’s earnings revealed that she has not earned legitimate income since 2009.
